

International Tax Academy Set Up By International Fiscal Association In Noida

The International Fiscal Association (IFA) Academy set up by International Fiscal Association – India Branch in Sector 62 Noida to provide facilities for studies and research in International Taxation inaugurated by Anita Kapur, Member, CBDT and Porus Kaka, President, International Fiscal Association four lectures by eminent International Tax experts on the subject “international Taxation – A Global Overview”.

India Branch of IFA was set up in 1983 with the efforts of the leading Senior Advocate, late Sh. O.P. Vaish. IFA is duly recognized by the Government. CBDT and also Authority for Advance Ruling are also members of IFA. Senior officials from Income Tax Department participates in conferences and other activities of IFA.

The Academy will offer facilities to the students, professionals, corporate executives and tax officials for studies and also to carry out research in international taxation. This subject and also transfer pricing regulations in relations to international transactions has assumed great importance in the present scenario on account of globalization and efforts of the government to give boost to the growth through inbound investments and technology. The Academy will provide short term and long term courses also which will be designed for all levels of studies such as basic, intermediary and advance level studies. The IFA Academy will provide a unique opportunity to the aspirants of studying International taxation.